Responsibilities

- Select the team in accordance with the club team selection policy.
- Ensure players are appropriately dressed (including wearing club 'kit').
- Welcome visitors and encourage fair play at all times.
- Ensure transport arrangements have been made for away matches and communicated to the team.
- Advise away team captains if there is likely to be a delay or postponement of a match.
- Ensure that the match card is sent to the league match secretary on time.
- Be aware of and act on club accident, incident and evacuation procedures.
- Agree to and act on the Club's Child Protection and Equity policies and Club Rules and Codes of Conduct.
- Attend club and other appropriate meetings as and when required.

Task List

- Distribute league handbooks and/or fixture lists to team members at the start of the season.
- Inform players selected at least a week in advance of the match.
- Home matches: ensure players arrive before the match commences to help to set up venue (table, surrounds, scoring machines etc.) and to have a knock up before the opponents arrive.
- Away matches: obtain directions to venue, ensure players have transport and encourage them to arrive on time.
- Be in charge of team match balls and score cards.
- Encourage players to support each other to develop team spirit.
